ARSON INVESTIGATION - TRACY, CALIFORNIA

DETAILS

The FBI and the San Joaquin County Sheriff's Office are seeking information about the December 26, 2015, attempted arson and possible hate crime at the Tracy Islamic Center located at 11970 West Larch Road in Tracy, California. On that morning, the President of the Mosque Board discovered the remains of an explosive device known as a "Molotov Cocktail" outside the door of the Mosque. Law enforcement officials determined the device was thrown over a chain link fence, possibly in an attempt to set the Mosque on fire. As a result of the arson attempt, the Mosque sustained approximately $1,000 in damages.

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $2,500 for information leading to the arrest of the individuals involved in this crime.
